PRESIDENT

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

1. Prepare the President's Message and send it to the reporter in time for the first newsletter. Contact the Webmaster to update the website.
2. Coordinate with Student Relations Chair on a date for the Officer Orientation.

SEPTEMBER

1. In coordination with the Student Relations Chair, conduct an officer orientation and request each officer to examine his/her duties in the handbook.
2. Begin appointing committees as soon as possible when you receive the information about volunteers from the Student Relations Committee Chairman. Choose reliable schools for the Nominating, Registration, and Social Dance Committees. No club shall have more than two committees.
3. When a school accepts a committee, request the chairman to examine the duties in the handbook.
4. Correct the minutes that the secretary sends to you. Return them to the secretary as quickly as possible.
5. Begin preparing a tentative program to present for approval at the January executive board meeting. Remind the vice president to have suggestions for speakers, suggestions for themes, and suggestions for books to be discussed.
6. Send the secretary a copy of a map giving directions to the location of the fall executive board meeting. Confirm the time and date and remind him/her to send notes to all officers, committee chairmen, the Student Relations Committee chairman, the hotel liaison, and the webmaster.
7. Plan your fall executive board meeting. To eliminate confusion, write everything that is to occur at the meeting. A printed agenda is needed. Make sure everyone understands his/her duties. Doodle Poll helps identify best dates for schools to attend.

OCTOBER

1. Attend and preside at the executive board meeting.
2. Urge all committee chairmen, officers, and sponsors to attend the meeting.
3. Remind the secretary to make copies or email the minutes for the executive board meeting.
4. Send the "President's Message" to the reporter.
5. Check on the newsletter. Instruct the reporter to send notices to clubs, asking for news. Remind him/her not to wait.
6. Set limits for pre-registration of contests at the earliest possible date.

OCTOBER/NOVEMBER

1. Check with the vice president(s) concerning the program—all speakers should be confirmed and workshop leaders confirmed.
2. Check with the reporter—receipt of club news, preparation of the fall newsletter, etc.
3. Check with the treasurer—notices should be sent to all clubs which were members during the past year.
4. Revise the directory of committees to be distributed at the executive board meeting.

DECEMBER

1. Clarify the duties of the vice president and the president at the convention. It helps to know at which meetings each person presides.
2. Remind the treasurer to send an alphabetical list of paid clubs to the reporter, the Student Relations Committee chairman, the executive secretary/liaison, and the webmaster.
3. STRIVE TO HAVE EVERY BLANK ON YOUR PROGRAM FILLED. This includes invocations, benedictions, etc. Try not to have every name on the program from one area. This is difficult and time consuming, but it gives more participation.

JANUARY

1. Attend and preside at the executive board meeting.
2. Begin preparing for the convention.
3. Prepare the final convention program, gathering information from the vice president, other officers, and committee chairmen.
4. Send a copy of the completed program, including book discussions and workshops to the Student Relations Committee chairman, the executive secretary/liaison, the reporter, and the Hospitality Committee chairman. The Hospitality Committee will need the names of the guests for whom gifts need to be purchased.
5. Make the seating charts for the head tables. You will need one for each general session and the luncheon.
6. Send a copy of the seating charts to the Student Relations Committee chairman. When they have been approved, making sure that no one is omitted, make place cards. Take a few blank cards to convention to take care of last minute changes.
7. Make sure the treasurer has distributed the current list of member clubs to committees needing the information.
8. Check with the hotel liaison on meeting room assignments.
9. Print the program, including the seating charts at the end of the program. Include a map of the convention meeting room area somewhere in the program. Contact the Registration Committee to anticipate number of copies needed.
10. Instruct the secretary to inform officers and contest committee chairmen of the executive board meeting at the convention.
11. Check on the installation material with the Nomination Committee.
12. Remind the Student Relations Committee chairman to remind sponsors of evaluation forms to be distributed after convention. These are returned to the incoming chairman.
13. Purchase 1st, 2nd, 3rd place ribbons for the contests. Estimated count: 22 sets
14. Pass on gavel to present to the incoming president.

15. Prepare a notebook of every word you plan to say when presiding at the convention. This should be double or triple spaced to allow for “write-ins” as needed.
16. Prepare the assignment for the orientation.

5. Prepare a printed agenda for the executive board meeting.
6. Receive approval at the executive board meeting for the awarding of a janitorial tip (usually $50).

Revised March 14, 2017

Robert's Rules of Order

What Is Parliamentary Procedure?

It is a set of rules for conduct at meetings that allows everyone to be heard and to make decisions without confusion.

Why is Parliamentary Procedure Important?

It is a time tested method of conducting business at meetings and public gatherings. It can be adapted to fit the needs of any organization. Today, Robert's Rules of Order newly revised is the basic handbook of operation for most clubs, organizations and other groups. So it's important that everyone know these basic rules. Organizations using parliamentary procedure usually follow a fixed order of business.

Below is a typical example:

1. Call to order
2. Roll call of members present
3. Reading of minutes of last meeting
4. Officer reports
5. Committee reports
6. Special orders — Important business previously designated for consideration at this meeting
7. Unfinished business
8. New business
9. Announcements
10. Adjournment

What is a Motion?

The method used by members to express themselves is in the form of moving motions. A motion is a proposal that the entire membership take action or a stand on an issue.

Individual members can:

- Call to order
- Second motions
- Debate motions
- Vote on motions

What are the Four Basic Types of Motions?

Main Motions: The purpose of a main motion is to introduce items to the membership • for their consideration. They cannot be made when any other motion is on the floor, and yield to privileged, subsidiary, and incidental motions.

Subsidiary Motions: Their purpose is to change or affect how a main motion is handled, • and is voted on before a main motion.

Privileged Motions: Their purpose is to bring up items that are urgent about special or • important matters unrelated to pending business.

Incidental Motions: Their purpose is to provide a means of questioning procedure • concerning other motions and must be considered before the other motion.

How are Motions Presented?

1. Obtaining the floor

Wait until the last speaker has finished.

Rise and address the Chairman by saying, "Mr. Chairman, or Mr. President."

Wait until the Chairman recognizes you.

2. Make Your Motion

Speak in a clear and concise manner.

Always state a motion affirmatively. Say, "I move we ..." rather than, "I move we do not ...".

Avoid personalities and stay on your subject.

3. Wait for Someone to Second Your Motion

Another member will second your motion or the Chairman will call for a second. If there is no second to your motion it is lost.

4. The Chairman States Your Motion

The Chairman will say, "it has been moved and seconded that we ..." Thus placing your motion before the membership for consideration and action.

The membership then either debates your motion, or may move directly to a vote.

Once your motion is presented to the membership by the chairman it becomes "assembly property", and cannot be changed by you without the consent of the members.

5. Expanding on Your Motion

The time for you to speak in favor of your motion is at this point in time, rather than at the time you present it.

The mover is always allowed to speak first.

All comments and debate must be directed to the chairman.

Keep to the time limit for speaking that has been established.

The mover may speak again only after other speakers are finished, unless called upon by the Chairman.

6. Putting the Question to the Membership

The Chairman asks, "Are you ready to vote on the question?"

If there is no more discussion, a vote is taken.

On a motion to move the previous question may be adapted.

Voting on a Motion:

The method of vote on any motion depends on the situation and the by-laws of policy of your organization. There are five methods used to vote by most organizations, they are:

By Voice - The Chairman asks those in favor to say, "aye", those opposed to say "no". Any member may move for a exact count.

By Roll Call - Each member answers "yes" or "no" as his name is called. This method is used when a record of each person's vote is required.

By General Consent - When a motion is not likely to be opposed, the Chairman says, "if there is no objection ..." The membership shows agreement by their silence, however if one member says, "I object," the item must be put to a vote.

By Division - This is a slight verification of a voice vote. It does not require a count unless the chairman so desires. Members raise their hands or stand.

By Ballot - Members write their vote on a slip of paper, this method is used when secrecy is desired.

Other motions commonly used that relate to voting

Motion to Table - This motion is often used in the attempt to "kill" a motion. The option is always present, however, to "take from the table", for reconsideration by the membership.

Motion to Postpone Indefinitely - This is often used as a means of parliamentary strategy and allows opponents of motion to test their strength without an actual vote being taken. Also, debate is once again open on the main motion.

Parliamentary Procedure is the best way to get things done at your meetings. But, it will only work if you use it properly.

Tips on Parliamentary Procedure

Allow motions that are in order.

Have members obtain the floor properly.

Speak clearly and concisely.

Obey the rules of debate.

Most importantly, BE COURTEOUS.

WES SMITH STORY

Here is my Wes story—jumbled, as are my memories of this very, very special young man. Use the facts in any fashion you choose. Feel free to reword in any direction that seems good.

Wes Smith—Pineville High School Library Club—1966. Wes appeared, no one noticed. Wes was a normal forgettable 9th grader, slim, small, large ears, large glasses, large feet. He stayed. We let him.

Same deal—1967. Larger feet, ears, and teeth. However, the boy began to bloom. Wes became our wheeler—dealer extra ordinaire! Need funds raised? Get Wes. Need a truck for a float? Get Wes. Need books shelved? Don't get Wes; he is too busy wheeling and dealing. That was the year Wes began to be known to LTLA circles. He went to his first convention...and loved it! He soon knew everybody and, better still, they all knew him. He began to work on committee assignments and was excited by the political processes that he saw at work there. PHS club prospered—Because WE GOT WES!!!

1968—Wes dealt with all matters large and small at PHS Library. I never will forget the day he appeared wearing his tiger-stripe socks (he wore his tiger stripe socks most of the time) and demanding an office and a secretary of his own. Those were banner years for our club. We won all the parades at school. WE HAD WES!!! We were the most popular club there—with about 75 members. WE HAD WES!!! We raised untold amounts of money for hospitals. After all, WE HAD WES!!! Soon LTLA had Wes. He campaigned avidly and won the state presidency...and was inducted into office with much pomp—and wearing his tiger stripe socks, which by then had become his good luck charm. He was fun to be around, he was clever, and he loved people.

1969—Wes was President!!! Library work was probably second on our local agenda. Laura Harris acted as secretary and general manager. I think I was largely ousted from my office that year. They schemed, planned and produced another great convention. At convention Wes nearly danced his legs off—he sweated, grinned, finished dancing with three girls (the ratio was bad then, too) and said, “It’s a tough job, but someone’s gotta do it.”

I loved Wes. He was student, club member, baby-sitter, and later, my friend. My daughter thought he was perfect. At two she told him, “Play horsey!” He replied, “Poor old Wes is tired.” She responded, “Getty-up, poor old Wes!” He did.

By the time Wes was college age, he had earned enough part-time job wise to buy a duplex which he fixed up to rent. He went to college, graduated, and took a job with the railroad to earn money for graduate school. He was on the job when the engine he was in attempted to cross a railroad bridge which had not been properly closed. The train went into the river and he was killed. I was away at school, so this must have been in 1975—spring, I think. I remembered he told me once that he would not live to be old. I tried to quell such thoughts. He said, “It’s ok. I’ve always known that.”

I think, sometimes, that perhaps things needed doing in Heaven with lots of verve, lots of laughter, lots of sparkle, and probably a pair of tiger-stripe socks—and Somebody said, “Get Wes!”—and they did.

Dr. Mary Edwards
Pineville High School

STUDENT RELATIONS COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN

The prime responsibility is coordinating the activities of sponsors and students into a unified effort to promote worthwhile library-related activities for the Louisiana Teen-age Librarians Association.

1. Act as the liaison between the executive board of the Louisiana Teen-age Librarians Association and the parent organization, Louisiana Association of School Librarians.
2. Attend all executive board meetings and the convention.
3. Work closely with the LTLA president, vice president, and their sponsors in planning for the year's convention.
4. Work closely with the LTLA/hotel liaison person.
5. Check with all new officers to see that they have received handbooks from the old officers, and that there are no gaps in the flow of information.
6. Submit reports in person or by email to all meetings of the Louisiana Association of School Librarians. The first report is to be made at the Louisiana Library Association conference immediately following the LTLA convention. That report should give convention information: the number of schools attending, the type of program, as well as the names of the new officers.
7. Remind the president to have an agenda for each executive board meeting.
8. Remind the reporter to put rules in the October/November newsletter.
9. Correspond with all officers and committee chairmen throughout the year.
10. Upon request, send LTLA information to new clubs.
11. Approve, with the rest of the committee, all nominations before the sample ballots are mailed. Remember the policy: president, vice president, and treasurer should be juniors and seniors when they serve.
12. Purchase the prize or prizes for the door prize drawing. This is according to the numbers on the backs of the name tags. Also see Book Sale Committee for book fair items.
13. Work closely with the Membership Committee in securing booth/table at the LLA conference. Consider presenting a workshop at LLA or LASL conferences regarding Library Clubs.
14. Approve the music contract before it is signed.
15. Remind the reporter to distribute information forms for the newly elected officers to complete. These completed forms are given to the new reporter for publicity purposes. Request copies for the files. A copy of the form is needed by the executive secretary/liaison to compile the officer directory.
16. Remind the president to purchase all ribbons (1st, 2nd, 3rd place) for the contests and the incoming president's gavel.
17. Write a letter to all clubs in January stating the do's and don'ts at convention.
18. Remind everyone to check with him/her before leaving the dance and game area early.
19. Two weeks before convention, check on the progress of each committee and officer.
20. Take the LTLA banner to convention. The banner is housed at the chairman's library.

21. Help tally votes at the convention. Only the Nominations Committee chairman and sponsor and the Student Relations Committee chairman are present.
22. Distribute evaluation sheets to be returned after the convention to the new Student Relations Committee chairman. (The outgoing chairman makes and distributes them; the incoming chairman receives and tallies them.)
23. Conduct the sponsors' meeting at the convention. Request the incoming chairman to record the minutes of the meeting.
24. Coordinate the new member orientation.
25. Patrol on Sunday night until you are reasonably sure that all students are in their own rooms.
26. Collect the spirit award packets and determine the winners as indicated in Standing Rules #28.
27. Remind the sponsor of the president that he/she is automatically on the Student Relations Committee and may be invited to Louisiana Association of School Librarians executive board meetings.
28. Make arrangements for tickets for the presiding LTLA president and sponsor or parent to attend the Louisiana Association of School Librarians luncheon at the Louisiana Library Association convention. The outgoing chairman makes the arrangements. (In the past, LASL has paid for the tickets.)
29. Transfer all materials to the next chairman.
